Questions for Pastor...

Some one I talked to said the Bible isn't reliable, because even the Gospel writers couldn't agree on the details of Jesus' life. Is that true?

That's a common objection I hear from people who are looking for excuses not to believe the Bible. (And people seem to be constantly looking for those excuses because in the Bible God often tells us things we don't want to hear - like "Repent.")

It's an objection that really doesn't "hold water" so to speak. A little background may be in order before I answer why:

Matthew, Mark, Luke and John all wrote what we know as the "gospels." The word "gospel" simply means "good news." They wrote the Good News about Jesus Christ: His life, ministry, death, and resurrection. Thus, the Gospels could be considered as biographies about Jesus.

It is true that they didn't record exactly the same things about the same events. For example in recording Jesus' miraculous feeding of the 5000 John tells us that the disciple Philip told Jesus it would take eight months wages to buy food for all the people. Matthew and Luke don't mention Philip or any comment about how much it would cost. Mark simply says that "the disciples" said it would take eight months' wages. Matthew, Mark and Luke also simply record that they only found five loaves of bread and two fish, but John tells us that the disciple Andrew found a small boy who had five barley loaves and two small fish.

In this example the differences among the gospels is simply a case of John being more specific in his details of the situation. The others are relaying just the general facts of the situation. There's no discrepancy there, just different perspectives.

Different perspectives explains much of the differences between the Gospels. For example, let's say that you and three other people witness the same event or hear the same sermon and are asked to tell about what you saw or heard. How many of you are going to give the same word-for-word description of what you saw? Probably none. You would tell about different aspects of the event than the other three (and each of their accounts would contain differences too). You would also quite likely remember different things about the sermon than the others (and vice versa). So it should be no surprise that Matthew, Mark, Luke and John don't give us the exact same information about the events they witnessed or the sermons they heard. In fact, we should expect that they wouldn't.

A further reason for the differences comes from the fact that each of the writers had different audiences. For example, Matthew was writing primarily to people of Jewish background. So he makes a point to highlight many more Old Testament prophecies that were fulfilled by Jesus. Mark, on the other hand, wrote primarily to a Gentile audience, so he frequently had to explain Jewish customs and words. Again, it makes perfect sense that you are going to write different things and in different ways to readers that are totally different.

So, instead of the differences in the Gospels being a sign of the unreliability of the Scriptures, the differences are actually indication that the gospels are not made up stories. If Matthew, Mark, Luke and John had set out to convince people of something they knew wasn't true, they would have made sure all their details matched. (One way professional investigators have of telling if people are lying is if their stories match too closely.) That's not the case with the gospels, because they weren't making anything up. They didn't have to make sure all their details matched in order to deceive people.

Finally, we have to remember here that we do not just have the words of men. We have the words of men as they were prompted by God. God uses their different personalities, perspectives and audiences to make sure everything He wants revealed gets told.

Thanks for asking,
Pastor David

Opportunities to "Share the Love of Jesus in Practical ways"...

Join our Prayer Force

One of the most practical ways you can share the love of Jesus is by praying for people in need. That's what people on our "Prayer Force" do. The "Prayer Force" is an e-mail prayer chain. You simply receive requests via email, then take those requests to the Lord in prayer.

Email Pastor David to sign up: dvdauk@mail.tds.net

Welcome New People

Keep your eyes open for people who move into your area.

One way we would like to begin "Sharing the Love of Jesus in Practical Ways" is by taking a basket of cookies to new people who have moved in. It is a simple way to share the love of Jesus.

Here's what we need you to do:

Keep your eyes open for people who have just bought or rented a home (or apartment) in your area. As soon as possible, notify our Visit Coordinator, Violet Dauk (220-0344). She will notify our cookie bakers and move-in visitors to go make a "welcome" visit.

We also need more:

Cookie Bakers & Move-in Visitors

Please call Violet if you can help with either of these.

Of course, don't forget to take your own batch of cookies (or whatever) to the new folks to welcome them to your neighborhood too.

Help with our "All Stars for Jesus" Program

Our Wednesday evening program for 4-6th graders still needs

- 1) A meal coordinator to schedule meal providers
- 2) an adult group leader for Bible stories & memory work
- 3) an activity leader for games and crafts

Please talk to Pastor David if you can help. Thanks

Be a "Secret Paul"

One of the things the Apostle Paul was noted for was praying daily for people. Paul prayed for their protection. He prayed for them to grow in their faith. He prayed for them to grow in putting their faith into action. He prayed prayers of thanks for them. See details on page 20

Be a Meal-Maker ...

As a way of sharing the love of Jesus in helpful ways, get involved in our new "Make-A-Meal" program.

See details on page 21.

Help with our Benefit for Kristina Scholl

We are planning a special benefit fundraiser to help the Scholls with the costs they've incurred during Kristina's hospitalization. The benefit will be Saturday, November 18. We will need lots of help. Please say "Yes, I can do that" when someone from the Benefit Committee asks you. Thanks! Supplemental Funds are being applied for through the Kandihohi County Chapter of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans.

At this point we need people to sign up to provide

- + Pies and apple crisps,
- + Christmas cookies
- + Baked Goods
- + Volunteer help during the day

WE GIVE THANKS FOR ALL THE BOUNTY THAT FARMER BOB HAS BLESSED US ALL WITH THESE PAST FEW MONTHS

A Minute for Parents...

A lesson from our Heavenly Father about passing along your faith.

What to do when you "blow it."

Last month we talked about how God wants us to set an example for our children of being holy (different in a godly way). One of the facts of parenting is that we are not perfect. We may want to set a good example, but we often do just the opposite.

You won't always do what God wants you to. You won't always love God above all things. You won't always love your neighbor as yourself. You won't always set a godly example. You will sin (remember, "sin" is anything contrary to what God wants).

Your reaction to not always living a "holy and God-pleasing" life will be a key in the faith development of your children. Instead of ignoring your sin or trying to blame it on some circumstance, ask God's forgiveness. Jesus died to purchase it for you. It's there just for the asking.

And when your children witness you doing something you've told them God doesn't want them to do, admit to them that you did wrong. Ask their forgiveness. Ask God's forgiveness in front of them. Ask for the Spirit's power to be holy next time.

God has promised He can work all things for the good of those who love him (Romans 8:28). When we set an example of asking forgiveness for setting a bad example, God can make that bad example into something good. The example of forgiveness. Try it.

November Discipleship Verse...

Let them sacrifice thank offerings and tell of his works with songs of joy.

Psalm 107:22

Confirmation Parents...

Our next "Parent" class is this Wednesday, November 8.

We'll talk about a couple more "Parenting Principles from our Heavenly Father." I'll also update you on your student's progress in confirmation. Then I would like to spend a little time getting your input on some youth activities for the coming year, so bring your ideas (and your teen's ideas) on some fun, faith-building events and mission trips, etc...

NOTE: Since we will not have Confirmation on November 22 (due to Thanksgiving Worship) the students will have class on November 8 while we are in our parenting session.

Be A Secret Paul...

Here are the details of our new congregation-wide prayer program:

This spring at Living Word we went through a study called "Battle Cry for a Generation." We were reminded of the need to be involved in the lives of the young people of our congregation and to be for them what a church should be - a caring, extended family.

One idea that came out of our study was to pair up each young person with an adult who would commit to pray for them daily. As a way of also getting the young people involved it was suggested that we have each one of them commit to pray daily for an adult in the congregation. We then expanded on that idea and decided to include the entire congregation in the prayer program. "Secret Paul" is the name we have chosen for this "prayer pal" program.

In coming up with a name for our program we were reminded that the Apostle Paul was noted for praying for other believers every day. Paul prayed for their protection. He prayed for them to grow in their faith. He prayed for them to keep putting their faith into action. He said prayers of thanks for them. We will seek to follow Paul's example and be in prayer daily for each other.

The "Secret" part of the program name comes from the fact that we will not reveal who is praying for whom until the end of the year at a special banquet. We will be "secret prayer pals" or "Secret Pauls" for each other.

As part of the program each person will receive a packet of information about the person you are paired up to pray for. That packet will include a picture, birth date, hobbies/interests and special prayer needs.

That brings us to what we need from you right now: Please fill out and return the information card you received in your mailbox at church. It will include information you want put in the packet to be given to the "Secret Paul" who will pray for you.

We have also set aside times on Nov. 16, 17 and 18 to take pictures for these information packets. (The pictures will also be used to create a Living Word pictorial directory). Please sign up for a picture time at church. We still need people to help with the picture taking. If you would be interested in helping with pictures, please call one of our "Secret Paul" coordinators Violet Dauk @ 354-4103 or Gwen Anfinson at 796-2452

This is a church-wide program, but if you don't want to be included please let us know.

Thanks to everyone who helped with our First Annual "Trunk or Treat?"

"Make-A-Meal" program...

Our "Make-A-Meal" program has been one of the most successful ways we have of "Sharing the Love of Jesus in Practical Ways" with people going through a tough time.

We will be making a couple of changes to the program to hopefully make it even easier to share the love of Jesus:

1) You will notice special "PRAYER and CARE" cards in the worship attendance folders. Please use these cards to give us the names of people you know who could use a meal. (You can also use the cards to give prayer requests for Pastor and/or the Prayer Force prayer chain). The cards can be filled out and placed in the offering plate.

2) We would like to put our "Meal-Makers" on a schedule. "Meal makers" can sign up for specific months they would like to be available to make meals. It would work best to have two "Meal Makers" per month. (You can sign up for just one month or as many as you'd like).

So, if you have already signed up to be a "Meal Maker" please pick what month(s) would work best for you. If you have not signed up and would like to be a "Meal Maker" - here's your chance.

Thanks for making a meal and making a difference!
